Chapter 1 by Iain Campbell

In the end. Nothing matters. He came into town from the desert to the south, soaked in the blood of hundreds if not thousands. Men woman and children have all fell to him. He was always armed with his girls and boys, "Lucy and Sarah" a pistol and a rifle, he could kill a man with either before any normal person could see them but then this was no normal person, "Simon and Dan" the blades, he could kill and flay him before they could scream. He was a legend in these wastes, rumour has it he was one of the crazy docs experiments that's how he got the eye, the robot eye of the wastelander, the myth of it had been around as long as he has, apparently he used it to see through walls and he could see further than a eagle.

As soon as he walked in from the desert we all knew what would happen we've all heard the story he goes into the town the hunters come they destroy the town trying to kill him. He walked into the bar, and the bar emptied in seconds apparently someone was harassing one of the girls and he had a problem with that.
